How to prepare a Full Proposal for Fastlane

- a. Professional preparation: undergraduate, graduate, and postdoctoral training, including major, degree, year of degree, inclusive dates of PhD
 - b. Appointments: reverse chronological order (begin with current)
 - c. Products (NOT PUBLICATIONS): five most closely related to project and five others; must be published; include full citation
 - d. Synergistic activities: up to five examples of the broader impact of your professional/scholarly activities
 - e. Collaborators and Other Affiliates:
 - i. Collaborators and Co-Editors: alphabetical order list of collaborators in last 48 months
 - ii. Graduate Advisors and Postdoctoral Sponsors: list of your graduate advisor(s), principal postdoctoral sponsor(s) and their current organizational affiliations
 - iii. Thesis Advisor and Postgraduate-Scholar Sponsor: list of all students whom you have advised for thesis or Postdoc in last five years, and their current affiliations; include total number of grads and postdocs sponsored.
 - iv. Other Personnel: information on postdocs, other professionals and research assistants may be included if desired
6. Budget: Wendy will work with you on this on budget development and will enter it into Fastlane. Consider before talking with her:
- a. Your summer salary: up to 2 months allowed on all federal grants
 - b. Your buyout (if appropriate to type of grant)
 - c. Postdoc? 9 or 11 months?
 - d. Number of research assistants? 2, 4.5, 9, or 11 months? 50% time or 25% time?
 - e. Will you have Research Experience for an Undergraduate?
 - f. Annual domestic travel for UIUC people?
 - g. Annual international travel for UIUC people? Where might you/they go?
 - h. Annual travel for collaborators? Who might you bring in?
 - i. Are you holding a conference? Where? When? For how many non-UIUC attendees? How many UIUC attendees? What travel will you cover? Will you need supplies? Will you provide coffee breaks?
 - j. Do you need equipment or supplies? This must be MANDATORY for the successful completion of the project, and even then might be rejected.
 - k. Will you hire someone to evaluate your success? What might that cost?
7. Budget justification: After Wendy puts the skeleton in (rates, etc.), you add the meat (what PD/RA/hourly will do; where to travel; who to bring in; need for supplies, etc.)
8. Current and Pending: Wendy will do this; if you have submitted proposals through another unit, be sure to mention this to her
9. Facilities, equipment and other resources: We have a standard description, but if you are using facilities elsewhere (another University, another department), you should add to it.
10. Supplementary Documents:
- a. Postdoctoral Research Mentoring Plan: Applicable if you request funds for a PD. In one page, how will you mentor this person?
 - b. Data management plan: MANDATORY: In up to two pages, what data might you produce? What standards will be used? What is the policy for accessing this information? What is the plan for distribution? How will data be archived? See <http://www.nsf.gov/bfa/dias/policy/dmp.jsp>
