

A Π_3^0 -completeness result in group actions.
Steve Jackson (Univ. of North Texas)

Abstract: We study the dynamics of the action of a countable group G on the natural space 2^G . We give combinatorial reformulations of basic dynamical properties of this action, and investigate the descriptive complexity of these notions. We give a purely algebraic characterization of Π_3^0 -completeness for one of these.